

Exemptions for UK, Bangladesh, Pakistan or Sri Lanka

- Full exemptions for modules completed on an English LLB (including London External LLB and Northumbria LLB)
- One Year exemption for completing of a degree (any subject) provided the degree is equivalent to a UK bachelor degree, for example:
 - Bangladesh – one year exemption for completion of a four-year bachelor degree (any subject) average 50% from a Bangladesh public university or average 55% from a Bangladesh private university rated good by UGC.
 - Pakistan – one year exemption for completion of a four – year bachelor degree (professional subjects) average 55%.
 - Sri Lanka – one year exemption for completion of a four – year degree (any subject) average 55%
- Up to one year exemption for partial completion of an overseas LLB, for example:
 - Bangladesh – one year exemption for completion of minimum of two years of an LLB average 50% from a Bangladesh public university or average 60% from a Bangladesh private university rated good by UGC.
 - Sri Lanka – one year exemption for completion of a minimum of two years of a professional degree in Law average 50%.