

Overview of Professional Career

Name: Mark Bastick M.Ed., M.A., B.Ed., Dip. Teach., CELTA

Mark brings some 25 years of teaching experience to AEC Business School in his position with the English Language Department.

Having been a school teacher for 15 years in Australia, Mark then became involved in teaching English to adults 10 years ago, and has since then taught in a variety of educational settings including vocational colleges, language schools and universities. An Australian, he has been working in Singapore for 5 years and has also spent a year teaching in Guangzhou, China, and a brief stint in Thailand.

Mark's professional qualifications include two major disciplines, those of Theological Studies and Linguistics (majoring in TESOL and Language) – his formal credentials include:

- Master of Education (TESOL/Language) [M.Ed.]
- Master of Arts (Theological Studies) [M.A.]
- Bachelor of Education (Primary teaching) [B.Ed.]
- Diploma in Teaching (Primary) [Dip. Teach.]
- Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults [CELTA]

Along with his varied professional experiences and enthusiasm he provides an interesting contribution to the English Language Department of AEC Business School.
